

Verité

MONITOR

EXPLORING THE DYNAMICS OF THE GLOBAL ASSEMBLY LINE

Garment Workers on their way to work in Bangladesh

© CHANDAN/Map 1999

In this issue...

- Too Expensive to Work?
- Hot Spot: Northern Mexico
- The Anti Sweatshop Movement: A Call for Unity

Fall 1999
Issue 3

In this issue....

Fall 1999, Issue 3

2	Letter from the Founder Verité in 1999	14	Hot Spot: Northern Mexico Verité focus on the Maquiladoras of the Northern border area of Mexico
4	Verité Programs Verité holds Second Annual China Supplier Conference	16	Living Wage Too Expensive to Work?
6	Verité Findings Verbal, Physical and Sexual Abuse in the Factory	19	Verité Index Overtime Violations in Verité Monitored Factories
8	Student Movements Showdown between the Universities and the Clinton Administration	20	Asian Labor Standards Labor Standards and Human Rights: The Case of Chinese Workers Under Market Socialism
9	Press Release 5 Colleges Launch Pilot Program	22	New Initiatives US Business Principles for Human Rights of Workers in China
10	Global Child Labor Update Highlights of important initiatives	24	Images from the World of Work Photographs of women in Bangladesh on their way to working in the factories.
10	Common Verité Recommendations	26	Friends of Verité
12	Sweatshop Movement A Call for Unity	27	Doonesbury

sponsorship and subscription to the verité monitor

SUBSCRIPTION RATE

<input type="checkbox"/> Individual	$ 25	4 Issues
<input type="checkbox"/> Non Profit & Government	$ 50	4 Issues
<input type="checkbox"/> Friend of Verité	$100	4 Issues/ 2 copies of each issue
<input type="checkbox"/> Corporate Subscription	$150	4 Issues/ 5 copies of each issue

SPONSORSHIP LEVELS

<input type="checkbox"/> Founding Sponsor	$1000
<input type="checkbox"/> Donor	$ 500

Founding subscribers also receive a number of services, up to 5 hours research / consulting or briefings on related topic areas.
Donors receive up to 2 hours of research / consulting or briefings on related topic areas.

Name

Company Name

Address

City

Ph:

Fax:

State

Email:

Please include check made out to Verité with your subscription form

Send this form to: Verité Inc. , 49 South Pleasant Street, Third Floor, Amherst, MA. 01002